Junior Woman's Club Spiced Tea Names Sewing Winners Suggests Its Own Name

Three winners were selected in the Vogue Sewing Contest held by the Torrance Junior

Woman's Club, Marina District CFWC.

First place was captured by Mrs. W. H. Gardner, who wore a lilac silk linen sheath dress and matching jacket. Mrs. Charles Bennett drew second place with a three-piece sheer wool outfit in off-white consisting of a skirt, sleeveless blouse and jacket. Mrs. Ronald Forrester garnered third place with a sheath dress and jacket made of novelty black and brown wool jersey, the bodice of the dress and jacket lapels in black wool jersey.

Eight members participated in this contest sponsored by Vogue to find an ideal costume for the typical clubwoman. The requirements were that each contestant use a Vogue pattern and construct the outfit entirely by herself, with no outside assistance. Their costumes were judged for sewing ability, suitability to the wearer and fashion rightness. Judges for the contest were Mrs. Ronald Stark, Mrs. H. R. Altermatt, and Mrs. Ernest Mizerak.

The first place outfit by Mrs. W. H. Gardner will go on to be judged at the District level, and has a chance to go on to win the national prize of a trip to Europe. Also participating were Mmes. Edward D. Aiken, Jack C. Dean, Edward Felkel, J. A. Perry and Leonard Schulwitz.

Recent diners at The Polynesian Restaurant were Mr. and Mrs. John Carideo of Torrance and Mrs. Sara Zabriskie of Torrance, who formed a trio for tropical drinks and a Cantonese dinner.

Dear Ann Landers: How old does a girl have to be before she can ride in a car with a boy? This may seem like an odd question, but my father says I can date on weekends if I am in the house by midnight, but I can't ride in a car with a fellow until I'm 21. I am 16 years of age and an honor student. I've never been in any trouble and I've never broken my curfew. Please answer in the column. My folks think you are tops.—WONDERING

Dear Wondering: In my opinion a girl who is allowed to date should be allowed to ride in a car with a fellow—provided he has a driver's license and does not have a reputation for being reckless or smart alecky.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Copyright, 1961, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Designer Fashions, Celebrities Spark Kiwi's Annual Show

Kiwi Club of Los Angeles is staging its annual fashion-luncheon show at the Beverly Hilton grand ballroom, Wednesday, March 8, 11:30 a.m.

The Kiwi Club is a social and philanthropic organization composed of former American Airlines stewardesses and obtained its name from the Kiwi bird of Australia which, although it has wings, cannot fly.

Mrs. Frank Cordes, Redondo Beach, president, has announced that, as usual, part of the profits from this year's show will be donated to a favorite charity. In the past, the Kiwis have donated to the Los Angeles Exceptional Childrens Foundation and Pacific State Hospital. The Kiwi Club is a national organization with chapters in many major cities throughout the United States.

This year's theme is "Mannequin Madness" and will include top fashions by well-known designers. The fashion will be modeled by Kiwi members Mmes. Ray Murphy, Rolling Hills; Willard Fonda, Pacific Palisades; R. P. Reagan, San Pedro; A. K. Hall, Santa Monica; Hugh Sutherland, and W. L. Swanson, Redondo Beach, William St. George, Joan O'Toole and Mickey, Gill, Los Angeles, who will step through a large hat-box in the center of the stage. A mannequin will be placed on one side of the runway. Mrs. Sutherland is fashion coordinator and model chairman.

Mrs. Cordes will introduce the lovely actress, Martha Hyer, who will commentate the show. Miss Hyer will receive a Kiwi medallion naming her best-dressed actress of the year.

Mrs. Nicholas Wallner, La Canada, general chairman, will introduce movie and television comedian, Marty Ingles, who will emcee the show. Prior to the fashion showing, Mr. Ingles will introduce each model as she is wearing a specific outfit which will be included in the many gifts to be awarded.

Mrs. Williams Watson, Redondo Beach, hostess chairman, has selected Mmes. Harold Wright, Marc Elliott, Woodland Hills; Don Bromley, Torrance; William Dignam, Pacific Palisades; Eve Crane, Los Angeles; Marvin Whiteman, Pacoima and Sam Roberts, Portuguese Bend, to act as hostesses at the show.

Reservations for the fashion show will be taken through March 5. Taking reservations for this area are Mrs. R. P. Reagan, 30535 Miraleste Drive, San Pedro and Mrs. William Watson, 5340 Paseo de Las Estrellas, Redondo Beach.

Hairstyles for hostesses and models will be done by Mr. Lazareo of the Broadway Stores.

LINDA GISH Future Bride (Stanford Photography)

Linda Gish Engaged To Brent Scott

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis D. Gish, 22704 Date Ave., are this morning announcing the engagement of their daughter, Linda, to Brent Grey Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, 802 Hyde Ave., Pomona.

No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect is a senior at South High school. Her fiancé was graduated from North Torrance High school in 1959. He is now attending Mt. San Antonio Junior college in Pomona.

Named Chairman

Francis Bendi, a transfer student from Marymount College in New York, has been appointed social chairman for the Junior class at Marymount College, Palos Verdes.

However, on the great day of the unveiling, the tea which has since become famous all over the United States had to be served "nameless" to a large social gathering. But—imagine!—the constant comment it created actually suggested its name . . . "Constant Comment" Tea.

Al Bollington is one of America's outstanding organists, rightly deserves the title "Keyboard Soldier of Fortune." His colorful background includes tours in England and Canada, recordings with British RCA. He played over one thousand solo broadcasts on BBC and in 1947 had the unusual honor of being rated by public poll as the most popular organist in England. He has also recorded background music for the movie studios and made many appearances on TV, including the Lawrence Wolk Show.
